The UK Copyright, Designs and Patents Act of 1988 allows a reader to make a single copy of a limited portion of a work for the purposes of non-commercial research or private study (fair dealing). This limit is subjective and advice should be sought from Macmillan Education. It does not allow the copying of entire books or the making of multiple copies of extracts. In some countries it is possible for schools to do a limited amount of photocopying under the terms of a licence issued by a licensing agency such as the Copyright Licensing Agency (CLA) in the UK. It is also permissible to photocopy copyright material when the publisher has designated a book or part of a book ‘photocopiable’. This special permission is always indicated clearly in the book both at the front and on every photocopyable page. Many of the Teacher’s Books that accompany Macmillan Education ELT courses contain such photocopiable material. Under no circumstances may schools photocopy material for use in self-access centres, unless they have registered with the Copyright Licensing Agency or an associated licensing agency and allow/use photocopying strictly in accordance with their regulations. Please see our website or contact Macmillan Education for further details on copying limits.
