The Listening module is the first part of the IELTS exam. Do this quiz to see how much you know about it.

Quiz

1. How long is the Listening module in total?
   - A about 30 minutes
   - B about 40 minutes
   - C about 50 minutes
2. How many sections are there?
   - A 4
   - B 5
   - C 6
3. How many questions are there in total?
   - A 25
   - B 30
   - C 40
4. The first part of the Listening module is the easiest and the last part is the most difficult. True or false?
5. Each section is worth the same number of marks. True or false?
6. There are four situation types in the Listening module. Match the examples with a situation type (A–D). Then number the situation types (A–D) in the order you will hear them.
   - A Adam telephones a restaurant to book a table for a party.
   - B Professor Jones lectures on climate change.
   - C Steve, Mary and Sarah discuss their assignment on water pollution.
   - D Mr Green gives a talk on how to open a bank account in the UK.
   - [ ] A a monologue (one person speaking) in a university situation, e.g. a lecture
   - [ ] B a monologue relating to social needs, e.g. a speech about arrangements for meals at a conference
   - [ ] C a dialogue (two people talking together) relating to social needs, e.g. a conversation about travel needs
   - [ ] D up to four people talking together in an academic situation, e.g. a conversation between a tutor and a student about an assignment
7. How many times do you hear each section?
8. Do you have time to read the questions before you listen?
9. Where should you write your answers?
10. You will lose marks for incorrect spelling. True or false?

Section 1

Remember
- In the dialogues in Section 1 two people are exchanging factual information for a practical reason.
- Read the instructions carefully so that you know what to do. Underline the key words in the instructions to find out which type of question you need to answer.
- Read the questions carefully and predict what you will hear. Think about who is talking, where they are and what the topic is. In the exam you will only have a short time for this, so do it as quickly as possible.

Skills development

Prediction

Listening module Section 1: Exam information
- Number of people: two (a dialogue)
- Context: asking for factual information for a social/personal purpose
- Example situation: a student applying for a parking permit or someone reporting a stolen bag

1. Read the questions. Think about:
   - a who is talking
   - b who wants the information
   - c where they are
   - d what kind of information they want
   - e what they want to do with the information
2. The main building
   - A has three floors.
   - B is by a lake.
   - C has a glass front.
3. Which door should she take for the accommodation office?
   - A the first on the left
   - B the second on the right
   - C the second on the left

2 Listen and answer the questions.
Recognizing repetition and avoiding distracters

1 Read the recording script below. Which information is repeated?

Stephan: ... when you get inside, go straight down the corridor, to the far end, and turn left. You'll see three doors on your left – accommodation is the middle one.

Stephan: That’s right!

2 Look again at question 3. Why might someone choose B?

Completing notes

When completing notes, you will be given a word limit. You can write what you hear, but you might have to change the order of the words or miss some out for the answer to make sense.

e.g.

Students usually look for accommodation conveniently located on campus.

Students prefer accommodation on campus.

1 Rewrite these sentences. Write NO MORE THAN THREE WORDS for each answer. Check your answers are grammatically correct.

1 When you choose a university course, think about it carefully. It’s a really important decision.

You need to ........................................ before you choose a university course.

2 You might like to study near to your home town, or to go further afield.

You may prefer to go to university ........................................ or in another town or city.

3 The number of students who choose to study overseas is increasing very rapidly.

There has been a rapid rise in the number of students wanting to ........................................

2 Keiko made some notes about the accommodation available through the college. Read the notes and predict the kind of information you need to listen for.

3 Listen and complete Keiko’s notes. Write NO MORE THAN THREE WORDS for each answer.

4 Check your answers on page 71.
Listen to the final part of the conversation between Keiko and the Accommodation Officer and complete the form.

GIOVANNI’S

| Price per person: | £ __________________________ |
|-------------------|---------------------------------
| Deposit:          | £ __________________________ |
| Name:             | ________________________________ |
| Phone number:     | ________________________________ |
The listening passages in Section 2 focus on exchanging factual information for practical purposes. The passages may be dialogues or short talks given by one person (monologues) about how to do something. When you start listening ask yourself what the situation is and what the listener can do when they have the information.

Skills development

Listening module Section 2: Exam information

- Number of people: one (a monologue)
- Context: non-academic, social needs
- Example situation: an informal talk on how to open a bank account

Using key words for prediction

1. Read questions 1–3 below and underline the important words. Can you think of synonyms for these words?

2. Now listen and answer questions 1–3.

   1. The programme
      - A gives information about used car sales.
      - B tells you the best way to buy a car.
      - C tells you the most popular way to sell a car.
      - D looks at different ways of buying a new car.

   2. Which of the following reasons does the presenter give for someone wanting to buy a used car? Circle TWO letters A–D.
      - A You are a new driver.
      - B You have had an accident in your old car.
      - C Your car is too old to be repaired.
      - D You are not in a hurry to drive.

   3. One advantage of a dealer is
      - A they have a lot of room to show you the cars.
      - B they are cheap.
      - C you have a legal right to return the car if something goes wrong.
      - D they are honest.

Eliminating wrong answers

If you can eliminate even one or two wrong answers, you will improve your chances of getting the right answer.

3. Listen again and decide why the other answers to questions 1–3 above are wrong.

Completing a summary

1. Read this summary. For each gap, predict:
   - the type of word missing (e.g. noun/verb/adjective)
   - the kind of information it is asking for (use the context to help you)

   A (1) ...................... way to buy a car is privately. Usually this is done by looking through the (2) ...................... and contacting the person selling the car directly. The (3) ...................... is that you will not get a warranty. If you are not knowledgeable about cars, you should have the car checked (4) ......................

   You could also buy a car at auction. This could be very risky as you won’t have (5) ...................... to inspect it properly before you buy it.

2. Listen and complete the summary.
Skills practice

Questions 1–4

Read through questions 1–4. Use the skills you have just practised and then listen to the recording and write the correct letter A, B or C next to questions 1–4. You can choose any letter more than once.

What does Jenny Arnold tell the students about preparing for holidays abroad?

A They might ...
B They should ...
C They should not ...

1 find out about necessary vaccinations.
2 find out just before they leave.
3 have to pay for vaccinations.
4 have to pay for malaria tablets.

Questions 5–6

Read through questions 5–6 and complete the summary. Write NO MORE THAN THREE WORDS for each answer.

It is important to buy some (5) ........................................ before you leave, even though it may be (6) ........................................, especially if you plan to do adventure sports. It will make your holiday more relaxing if you know that you could always get home safely.

Questions 7–9

Read through questions 7–9 and then complete the sentences. Write NO MORE THAN THREE WORDS for each answer.

• While you are away, you should be careful of getting burnt by (7) ........................................ at midday.
